Resources for Government Leaders

Welcome to the CPCF Government Leaders Resource Center. Our desire is to provide you with up-to-date practical sources of information, as well as the necessary tools to advance legislation and fully engage the marketplace of ideas. Your ongoing leadership and support are critical in the fight to protect our religious liberties.

Our exclusive Web portal was designed as a valuable information hub especially for legislators and government leaders just like you. When you need access to pertinent legislative issues, associated research documents, historical references and more, this resource will provide critical tools to assist you in making proactive decisions that help secure and defend our religious liberties. Access links to legal/regulatory precedence and the rule of law, supportive talking points, opposition talking points, the states that have successfully enacted legislation, contacts for sponsoring legislators, historical references and additional links to like-minded organizations.

Join the 600 leaders and counting who are part of the APCN.

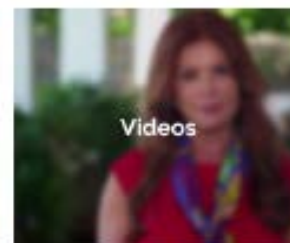

Some benefits of joining:

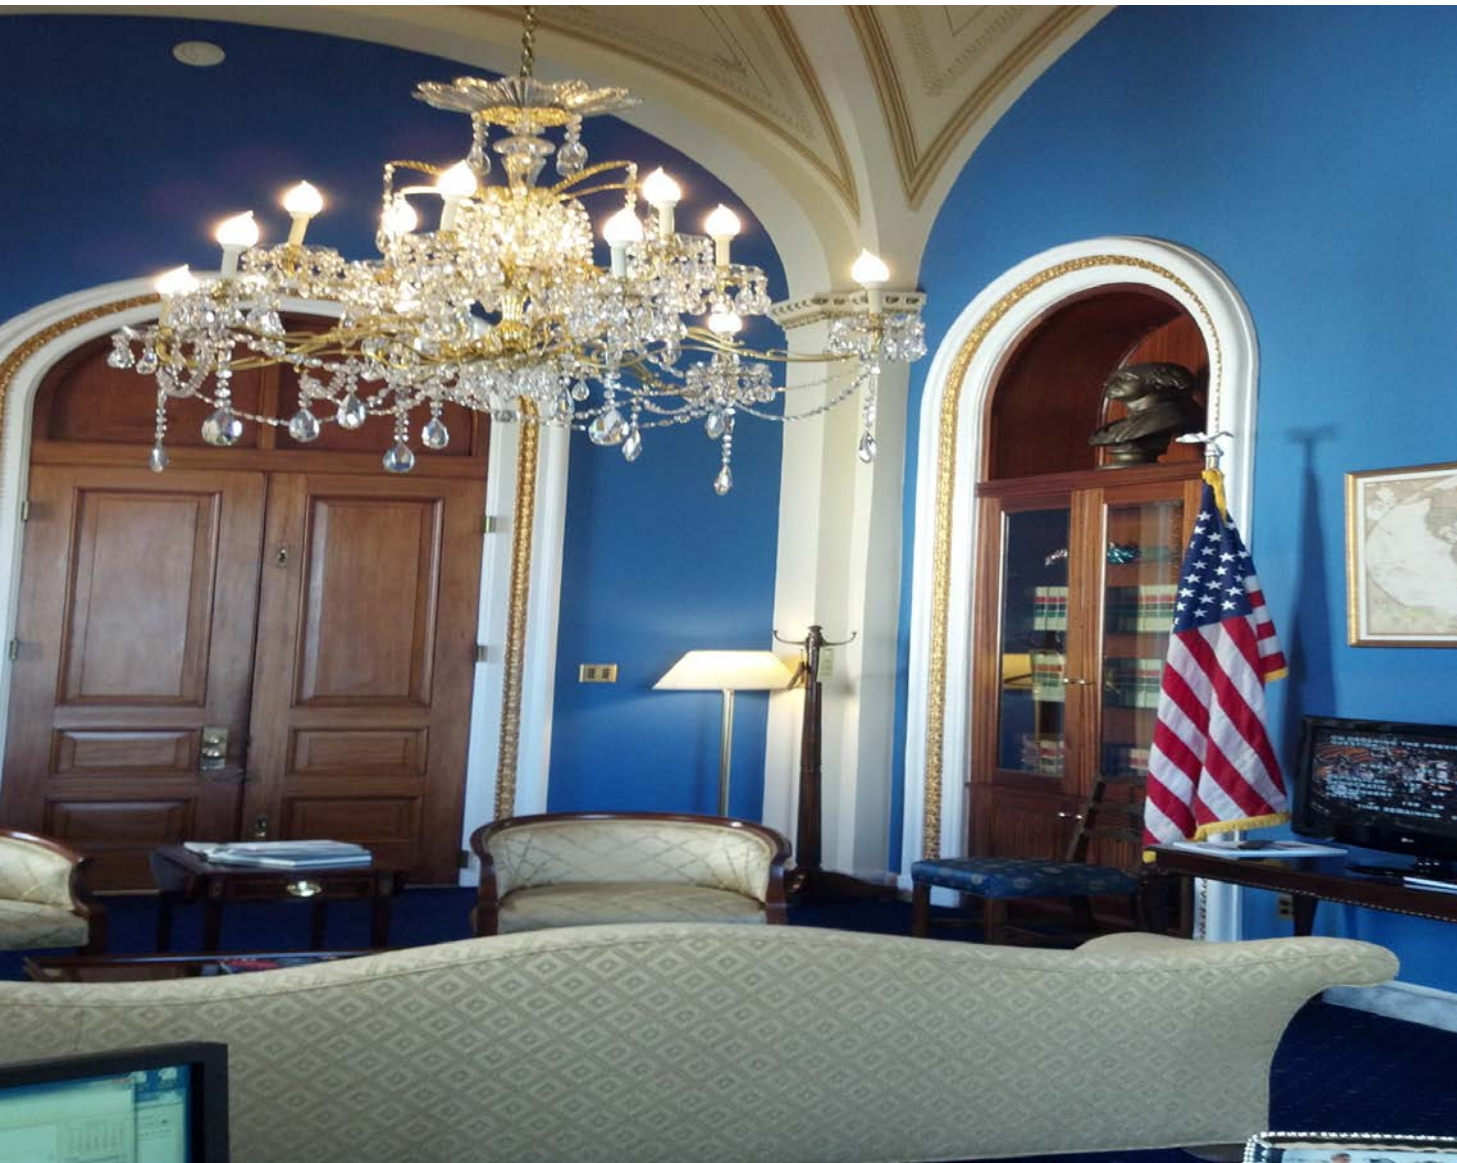

- National network of like-minded lawmakers
- Prayer support
- Networking opportunities: Telebriefings, Summit, Mobile App
- Resources
- Important updates and information related to Religious Liberty
